

Parshat Emor B

Leviticus 23:33-43

First Aliyah

³³ The Eternal spoke to Moses, saying: ³⁴ Say to the Israelite people: On the fifteenth day of this seventh month there shall be the Feast of Booths to the Eternal, [to last] seven days. ³⁵ The first day shall be a sacred occasion: you shall not work at your occupations; ³⁶ seven days you shall bring offerings by fire to the Eternal. On the eighth day you shall observe a sacred occasion and bring an offering by fire to the Eternal; it is a solemn gathering: you shall not work at your occupations.

Second Aliyah

³⁷ Those are the set times of the Eternal that you shall celebrate as sacred occasions, bringing offerings by fire to the Eternal—burnt offerings, meal offerings, sacrifices, and libations, on each day what is proper to it--³⁸ apart from the sabbaths of the Eternal, and apart from your gifts and from all your votive offerings and from all your freewill offerings that you give to the Eternal.

Third Aliyah

³⁹ Mark, on the fifteenth day of the seventh month, when you have gathered in the yield of your land, you shall observe the festival of the Eternal [to last] seven days: a complete rest on the first day, and a complete rest on the eighth day. ⁴⁰ On the first day you shall take the product of hadar trees, branches of palm trees, boughs of leafy trees, and willows of the brook, and you shall rejoice before the Eternal your God seven days.

Fourth Aliyah

⁴¹ You shall observe it as a festival of the Eternal for seven days in the year; you shall observe it in the seventh month as a law for all time, throughout the ages.

⁴² You shall live in booths seven days; all citizens in Israel shall live in booths, ⁴³ in order that future generations may know that I made the Israelite people live in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt, I the Eternal your God. ⁴⁴ So Moses declared to the Israelites the set times of the Eternal.
