

Parshat Vayikra B

Leviticus Chapter 2:1-13

First Aliyah

¹ When a person presents an offering of meal to the Eternal, your offering shall be of choice flour; you shall pour oil upon it, lay frankincense on it, ² and present it to Aaron's sons, the priests. The priest shall scoop out of it a handful of its choice flour and oil, as well as all of its frankincense; and this token portion he shall turn into smoke on the altar, as an offering by fire, of pleasing odor to the Eternal. ³ And the remainder of the meal offering shall be for Aaron and his sons, a most holy portion from the Eternal's offerings by fire.

Second Aliyah

⁴ When you present an offering of meal baked in the oven, [it shall be of] choice flour: unleavened cakes with oil mixed in, or unleavened wafers spread with oil. ⁵ If your offering is a meal offering on a griddle, it shall be of choice flour with oil mixed in, unleavened. ⁶ Break it into bits and pour oil on it; it is a meal offering.

Third Aliyah

⁷ If your offering is a meal offering in a pan, it shall be made of choice flour in oil. ⁸ When you present to the Eternal a meal offering that is made in any of these ways, it shall be brought to the priest who shall take it up to the altar. ⁹ The priest shall remove the token portion from the meal offering and turn it into smoke on the altar as an offering by fire, of pleasing odor to the Eternal. ¹⁰ And the remainder of the meal offering shall be for Aaron and his sons, a most holy portion from the Eternal's offerings by fire.

Fourth Aliyah

¹¹ No meal offering that you offer to the Eternal shall be made with leaven, for no leaven or honey may be turned into smoke as an offering by fire to the Eternal. ¹² You may bring them to the Eternal as an offering of choice products; but they shall not be offered up on the altar for a pleasing odor. ¹³ You shall season every offering of meal with salt; you shall not omit from your meal offering the salt of your covenant with God; with all your offerings you must offer salt.
